HOTEL GOLDGASSE

SALZBURG, AUSTRIA

The Hotel Goldgasse is more than a boutique hotel. It's a personal lifestyle experience, a first-class private residence, in the middle of Goldgasse street, in the heart of Salzburg's Old Town.

Salzburg is a baroque city of style and taste. Vast and impressive, it's full of surprises. The city's residents are famous for their tasty food and hospitality, so make a beeline for one of the many renowned restaurants and cafes.

The Hotel Goldgasse is not your typical city hotel, but rather a private residence. Since opening in 2015, it's quickly become the place to be. The hotel rests in a charming historical alley of the old town, secluded from the hustle and bustle of the city. While chic and reserved on the exterior, this 700-year-old stone building receives its guests with unreserved warmth and excellent service. Every one of the hotel's 16 rooms showcases individuality, luxury and the passion for detail.

An authentic hotel with an authentic atmosphere, the Hotel Goldgasse hasn't erased the traces of the past, but integrated them subtly into the new concept. The ceiling frescoes, at times even old stucco work — always of exceptional beauty — testify to the great craftsmanship of past times. A spot of naturally coarse wall next to glass walls with photographic backdrops. And throughout the building guests will find large-scale photographic scenes of the Salzburg Festival.

The 16 rooms and suites may all have different designs, but they still have some things in common, like a distinctly personal touch. Comfort can be so easy — with the right degree of luxury. Each bathroom is fitted with marble floors and wellness showers.

Finally, no visit to the Hotel Goldgasse would be complete without at least one meal in the Gasthof Goldgasse, the hotel's much-lauded restaurant. A star on Salzburg's culinary heaven in the middle of the historic Goldgasse, Gasthof Goldgasse stands for rare culinary pleasure, for outstanding and exciting cuisine using only the best local ingredients and a select assortment of Austrian wines. The restaurant is a place where hospitality is coupled with professionalism and every visit there is unforgettable.
